

Any hospital in-patient, who is a member of a major health fund, will not incur “out-of-pocket” expenses for Medicare rebatable pathology referred to Douglass Hanly Moir Pathology and Barratt & Smith Pathology.

Patients may have pathology tests performed during their stay in hospital. The costs of these pathology tests are now covered by all the major health funds including HCF, Medibank Private and MBF.

See reverse for a full list of participating health funds

DOUGLASS
HANLY MOIR
PATHOLOGY

“We take it personally”

BARRATT & SMITH
PATHOLOGY

“We take it personally”

DOUGLASS
HANLY MOIR
PATHOLOGY

"We take it personally"

BARRATT & SMITH
PATHOLOGY

"We take it personally"

Douglass Hanly Moir Pathology and Barratt & Smith Pathology have "no-gap" agreements with the following health funds.

- ACA Health Benefits Fund
- Australian Health Management
- Australian Unity Health Ltd
- CBHS Health Fund
- Central West Health Cover
- Credicare Health Fund (CUA)
- Defence Health Ltd
- GMF Health
- Grand United Corporate Health Ltd
- Health Care Insurance Ltd
- Health Partners
- Hospital Benefits Association (HBA)
- Hospital Contributions Fund of Australia (HCF)
- Manchester Unity Australia
- Medibank Private
- Medical Benefits Fund (MBF)
- Mutual Community
- Navy Health Ltd
- NRMA Health
- onemedifund
- Peoplecare Health Insurance
- Phoenix Health Fund Ltd
- Queensland Country Health Fund Ltd
- Reserve Bank Health Society Ltd
- rt health fund
- SGIC Health
- SGIO Health
- Teachers Federation Health Ltd
- Teachers Union Health
- The Doctors' Health Fund
- Transport Health